UP and DOWN

*Ninety steps to college
Lead up from the town,
Ninety steps to learning
To culture and renown.
We hurry up to eight o'clocks
But loiter coming down!*

HOWDY!

*As you go up and down the hill
To class and other places,
We set our camera casually
To catch your happy faces,
No formal shots,
No studied pose,
But just the life
That each day shows!*

*Your advice is sound,
Your motives true,
Your prayer sincere,
And your example trustworthy.*

*We have worked harder
For nobler causes
With more satisfaction,
Because we have known you.*

The work of 'Dorsey,' the college dean,
We students call, 'abuse,'
For when we're late or
miss a class,
He demands a good excuse.

Here he stands with both hands full,
Yet we must not be rude,
But just admit he's human too,
And has to have his food.

Mr. Dorsey's house is nice and warm
On good Kentucky loam;
Here he returns when day
is done
To good old 'home, sweet home.' -James Conley

TRAINING SCHOOL

Wickham Hall to us
college boys
Is where we get out
food and showers,
And where we make our
dreamland trips
And work through study hours.

Close to Wickham
a building stands
The place where
our classes meet,
'Tis there we find out what we lack
To make our lives complete.

At 5 to 6:00 we boys
spruce up
For a trip to Derriana,
The home of the girls,
a place for our dates
With Mable, Marie, or Jo Anna.
